PT. PRIMA DUTA SEJATI

About Company

PDS has more than two decades of history, which began when the two company founders saw an opportunity to explore and delve into manpower supply business while working overseas. Returning to Indonesia with a mission to start an employment service company, in 1997 the founders formed the company that later became the predecessor of PT. Prima Duta Sejati (PDS). PDS was established in 1999 and is located in Gempol, East Java – Indonesia.

From 1999 until now, PDS has placed more than 100,000 workers overseas (Hong Kong, Taiwan, Malaysia, Singapore, Japan, Korea, United Arab Emirates, Kingdom Saudi Arabia, Algeria, Aruba, Hungary, Serbia, Macau). Trained and placed through its central office, 11 regional offices, and 7 training centers spread in Java, Bali, and Nusa Tenggara Timur. PDS is committed to support government's effort, by focusing its strategy and resources in training and placing competent and qualified skilled workers.

About Indonesia

Indonesia, also known as the Republic of Indonesia, is the world's largest island country. It stretches 5,120 km from east to west and 1,760 km from north to south. It's located in both Southeast Asia and Oceania. The country has 17,504 islands, with about 6,000 of them inhabited. The biggest islands are Sumatra, Java, Borneo (shared with Malaysia and Brunei), Sulawesi, and New Guinea (shared with Papua New Guinea). Indonesia has sea borders with several countries including Singapore, Malaysia, Vietnam, the Philippines, Palau, Australia, and Papua New Guinea. It also shares land borders with Malaysia.

Indonesia is rich in natural resources, especially in the mining and construction industries. There's a high demand for skilled workers due to the country's growth and the government's focus on infrastructure development. This demand spans from mining to construction. The country has many experienced professionals in these fields. As these industries grow, they not only boost the economy but create jobs and also skilled workers.
